

Amsterdam Science submission inquiry form

Once you have filled out this form, send it to amsterdamscience@gmail.com
Don't forget to also attach a nice picture or graphic that you want to see in print!

Type of contribution

Choose one or more of the following options:

- Teaser
- Short Article
- Long Article
- Centrefold picture
- Front cover picture
- Back cover/Perspective
- Letter to the editor
- Column
- Then and Now
- Other

Title (maximum 25 words):

Summary (maximum 200 words):

Please make sure that your summary answers the following questions:

- What are the main research findings?
- Why are these findings relevant to a wide readership?

Amsterdam Science submission inquiry form

Link to Amsterdam (maximum 200 words):

What is the link with Amsterdam?

(university, study programme, research institute or subject of study)

Type of research:

The summary above describes research presented in:

- MSc thesis
- PhD thesis
- Peer-reviewed article
- Other

Please note that material from unexamined theses or unpublished research work will not be considered

Provide a web link (must be an URL – www.example.com)

Picture or graphics

Every submission should be accompanied by a (high resolution) picture or graphic that is relevant to the research described in the summary and that captures curiosity of our readers. Add a caption that describes the picture of image that accompanies your research. It should be clear and unambiguous.

Amsterdam Science submission inquiry form

About the author

Full name (including academic title):

Include a short bio that includes your affiliation and current research focus.

Contact information (e-mail):

*Once you have filled out this form, send it to amsterdamscience@gmail.com
Don't forget to also attach a nice picture or graphic that you want to see in print!*